EVENTS
SUMMER 2025

THE ROBEY CHICAGO, housed in the historic 1929 Art Deco flat iron building, towers high above the city's iconic six-corner intersection, merging two communities to form one of the city's most unique, creative epicenters. With 180-degree views of the city skyline, this 89-room hotel encompasses the storied spirit of Chicago through an urban, contemporary lens.

ROBEY
CHICAGO

With multiple venue options, all under one roof, The Robey Chicago is the ideal venue for private cocktail parties, get-togethers, company functions, brunches and private dinners. The Robey's diverse collection of restaurants, lounges and rooftop spaces offer a unique setting, suitable for any type of function.

THE UP ROOM

The Up Room is The Robey's rooftop cocktail lounge boasting a breathtaking view of the Chicago Skyline. The craft cocktail menu highlights crisp, cool cocktails and a dealer's choice option if you'd like your bartender to call the shots. The Grotto—a secluded, private alcove nestled within The Robey's bell tower—is sure to impress for those special, intimate occasions.

The image shows the interior of Robey Hall, a large, industrial-style space with high ceilings and exposed brick walls. In the foreground, a long table is set with a black tablecloth, white linens, glassware, and bottles. A large, dark diagonal shape cuts across the image from the top left towards the bottom right, separating the visual from the text.

ROBEY HALL

The Robey Hall, one of our most versatile spaces, offers a unique ambiance, great for standing cocktail receptions, concerts, fundraisers, galleries—the list goes on! Here you'll find street-level access, an exceptionally large bar, lounge seating, and presentation capabilities, all with an authentic Wicker Park vibe. Appetizers, passed and stationed, are available, as well as plated meal service.
